<sup>1</sup> Please note that NLRB Rules and Regulations Section 102.2(c) states that "[r]equests for extensions of time filed within three days of the due date must be grounded upon circumstances not reasonably foreseeable in advance." The due date for answering briefs to exceptions is September 11, 2018 and the request for an extension of time was filed on September 10, 2018, which is within three business days of the document's due date. Despite this, there is no explanation in the request for extension of time as to why the need for the extension was "not reasonably foreseeable in advance." Nonetheless, given that Counsel for the General Counsel has represented that Charging Parties International SPFPA and Local 120 do not oppose the extension and that Respondent and Charging Party Tamika Kelley were contacted but had not yet responded (and we have received no opposition from Respondent or Charging Party), we will allow the extension.
